

A Society of Souls

The School for Nondual Healing and Awakening

The World is Already Whole: Healing in the Relative World

Our vision of Wholeness must include Brokenness to actually be Whole. The extraordinary moment of including who and what we already are is the arrival of the deep nourishment we sometimes call awakening or enlightenment but which is really the dawning of sanity.

This evening we will both listen to and engage with Jinen Jason Shulman in a Sacred Conversation about this important perspective in our path to healing.

Who is Jinen Jason Shulman?

Jason is the founder of A Society of Souls, The School for Nondual Healing and Awakening, based in the United States and Europe. There he teaches the distinctive body of Nondual work he has developed to awaken the human spirit: Nondual Healing, Impersonal Movement, the Work of Return and the Magi Process.

Jason Shulman is a unique combination of modern healing master in the Kabbalistic tradition and a recognized Buddhist teacher who has received Dharma transmission. In his work as a spiritual teacher, healer and musician, he seamlessly integrates theistic and non-theistic spiritual thought and practice, uniting work on the personal self with all its suffering and beauty with learning how to reside in the spaciousness of the absolute.

Jason is author of A Path to an Awakened Soul (Inner Traditions), The Instruction Manual for Receiving God (Sounds True) and numerous monographs and articles. His three music CDs, The Great Transparency, Unlock My Heart and Buddha-Cloud, communicate his teachings in a way that goes straight to the heart.
